ARTIST BIOGRAPHY

California artist, Sally Ruddy, enjoys a distinguished career at both the national and international levels. She's a member of the prestigious National Association of Women Artists, and the Women's Caucus for the Arts. Several public collections hold her artwork, such as the Kaiser Permanente Hospital (Modesto, CA), California State University Stanislaus (Stockton and Turlock campuses), the Museum of New Mexico (Santa Fe, NM), the Oakland Museum Department of History (Oakland, CA) and the State of Hawaii Department of Homeland Security (Kahului, HI), to name a select few. Ruddy's artwork is also held in numerous private collections ranging around the world.

Ruddy's artwork was selected for exhibition in 2017 at the London Art Biennale and previously in 2013, then receiving an 'Honorable Mention for Technical Merit' award. She also was selected to exhibit in 2009 at the Biennale Internazionale Dell'Arte Contemporanea in Florence, Italy and at the American Embassy in Almaty, Kazakhstan during 1999 and 2000. For the past eighteen years Ruddy's artwork has been in annual solo exhibitions in New York City. Other solo exhibitions include, the Schacknow Museum of Fine Arts in Plantation, Florida (2008), at CALIFORNIA STATE UNIVERSITY | STANISLAUS, in conjunction with the theater presentation of The Vagina Monologues (2002), and Merced College Art Gallery (1992). In 1999, her artwork was commissioned by the United States Postal Service for a Commemorative Cachet, a first cover envelope, for the unveiling of the US Postage Stamp titled, "Honoring Those Who Served". Ruddy's artwork was selected for the covers of the 1993 – 1995 CALIFORNIA STATE UNIVERSITY | STANISLAUS Schedule of Classes and Annual Catalog.

Select publications featuring Ruddy's artwork are AMERICAN ART COLLECTOR (2020), The New York Art World® (May 2006), the NATIONAL AND INTERNATIONAL GALLERY GUIDE (Collector's Edition September 2004), 'The Continuum Encyclopedia of ANIMAL SYMBOLISM IN ART' (Hope B. Werness Ph.D.), TALKARTS (Winter 2002), and CATALIST Magazine (A Red Rose Publication, 1996). Several of the galleries that have represented Ruddy's artwork are The Amsterdam Whitney Gallery (New York, NY), the Mistlin Gallery (Modesto, CA), The Woman Made Gallery (Chicago, IL), First Street Gallery (Turlock, CA), the San Francisco Museum of Modern Art Sales and Rental Gallery (Fort Mason Center, San Francisco, CA), and The Richardson Gallery (Reno, NV).
